

Contents

Policy Perspectives and Performance

1. Policy Perspectives	1
2. Economic Performance	9
2.1 Introduction	9
2.2 Output Growth	10
2.3 Trends in Employment	13
2.4 Investment and Savings	13
2.5 Government Finances and Public Debt	14
2.5.1 Government Finances	14
2.5.2 Public Debt and Service Payments	16
2.6 Price, Monetary and Capital Market Developments	17
2.6.1 Price Developments	17
2.6.2 Monetary Developments	18
2.6.3 Capital Market Developments	19
2.7 The External Sector	20
2.7.1 Trade and Current Accounts	20
2.7.2 Capital and Financial Account	21
2.7.3 External Debt and Debt Service	23
2.8 Sri Lanka's Relative Economic Performance	24
2.9 Conclusions	25
3. International Environment	26
3.1 Introduction	26
3.2 Trends in the Global Economy	26
3.2.1 Advanced Economies	26
3.2.2 Emerging Economies	27
3.2.3 World Trade and Commodity Prices	28
3.2.4 Financial Markets and Aid Flows	29
3.3 WTO and the Doha Development Round	31
3.4 Sri Lanka and Global Economic Developments	34
3.5 Conclusion	37

Agriculture Reforms: Irrigation Water Charges and Land Policy

4. Agriculture Reforms: Irrigation Water Charges and Land Policy	39
4.1 Introduction	39
4.2 Inefficiency of Irrigation Water Use in Sri Lanka	40
4.2.1 Cost of Irrigation	42
4.3 Rationale for Irrigation Water Charging and Pricing	42
4.3.1 Principles and Methods of Water Pricing	43
4.4 An Alternative: Participatory Irrigation Management (PIM)	45
4.5 Land Development Ordinance and Land Grant (Special Provisions)	47
4.6 Current Situation with LDO and LG(SP) Land	49
4.6.1 LDO Land Inheritance, Price and Sale	50
4.6.2 Credit and Mortgage Link to LDO Tenure	51
4.6.3 LDO Land Size: Consolidation, Productivity and Poverty	52

4.6.4	Land Productivity and LDO Tenure	52
4.6.5	Encroachers and the Landless	53
4.6.6	LDO Land Tenure and Off-farm Employment	55
4.7	Reform Scenarios Permitting Sale of LDO and LG(SP) Lands	56
4.8	Recommendations and Conclusion	58

Leading Issues in the Development Process

5.	Extending Social Security to Informal Sector Workers	61
5.1	Introduction	61
5.2	Characteristics of the Informal Sector Workers	61
5.2.1	Own Account Workers	62
5.2.2	Informal Sector Employees	63
5.2.3	Unpaid Family Workers	65
5.3	Topology of Risks	65
5.4	Effective Risk Management	65
5.4.1	Favourable Macro Environment and Business Climate	66
5.4.2	Human Resources Development	66
5.4.3	Social Insurance	66
5.4.4	Social Protection	67
5.4.5	Institutional Reforms	68
5.4.6	Pro-poor Regulation	68
5.4.7	Informal Social Networks and Informal Sector Organizations	68
5.4.8	Social and Gender Aspects	69
5.5	Conclusions and Policy Recommendations	69
6.	State-Owned Enterprises and Pro-Poor Growth: Policy Perspectives and Options	71
6.1	Introduction	71
6.2	Empirical Evidence on SOE Reforms	72
6.3	Analyzing Policy Options	75
6.3.1	Corporatization without Privatization	75
6.3.2	Performance Contracts	76
6.3.3	Management Contracts	77
6.3.4	Liberalization and Private Participation	77
6.4	Conclusions: Necessary and Sufficient Conditions for Successful Reforms	78
7.	Samurdhi Poverty Alleviation Programme: Recent Developments and Issues	80
7.1	Introduction	80
7.2	Structure of the Samurdhi Programme	81
7.3	Recent Developments and Changes	81
7.3.1	Samurdhi Subsidy Programme	81
7.3.2	Samurdhi Social Security Programme	82
7.3.3	Nutrition Allowance Programme	86
7.3.4	Other Social Welfare Programmes	86
7.3.5	Samurdhi Banking Sector Programmes	86
7.3.6	Samurdhi Rural Development Programmes	87
7.3.7	Samurdhi Housing Development Programme	89
7.4	Conclusions	89

8. Effective Governance as a Pre-condition for Development	91
8.1 Introduction	91
8.2 Efforts at Poverty Reduction and Search for Growth with Equity	92
8.3 State Owned Enterprises	94
8.4 Natural Disaster Management	96
8.5 Public Policy Management	96
8.5.1 Sector Related Policies	96
8.5.2 Macro Policies	97
8.6 Corruption in Governance	98
8.7 Conclusions: The Task Ahead	100

Policy Briefs

9. Liberalization of Services Sector under the India-Sri Lanka CEPA	102
9.1 Introduction	102
9.2 Why Services Liberalization?	102
9.3 Services Profiles of Sri Lanka and India	104
9.4 The Liberalization of Services under CEPA	105
9.5 Conclusion	107
10. Fertilizer Subsidy Programme in Sri Lanka	108
10.1 Introduction	108
10.2 Fertilizer Subsidy as a Policy Tool	108
10.3 Empirical Implications	109
10.4 Conclusion	111
11. Equity and Millenium Development Goals for Sri Lanka	113
11.1 Introduction	113
11.2 Present Status of MDGs in Sri Lanka	113
11.3 Policy Environment towards Equitable Growth in Achieving MDGs	116
11.4 Conclusion	117
12. Towards an Essential Medicinal Drug Policy	119
12.1 Introduction	119
12.2 The Global Pharmaceutical Industry and Drug Marketing	119
12.2.1 Harmful and Unnecessary Drugs for the Developing Countries	119
12.2.2 Patents and Generic Drugs	120
12.3 Improving Access to Affordable Essential Drugs in Sri Lanka	121
12.3.1 TRIPS, Parallel Imports and Licensing	123
12.3.2 Emergence of a National Essential Drug Policy	123
12.4 Conclusion	125

Prospects

13. Prospects	127
----------------------	------------

Appendices

Diary of Events August 2005 - August 2006

i

Appendix A: Macroeconomic Indicators

vi

Appendix B: Capital Market (Statistical Base)

xxxi